

3 HOURS Horseback Ride in Patagonia

Lake Sofía, Caves, and Señoret Mountain Range, Puerto Natales

 Our commitment goes beyond the experience you are about to enjoy.

Your visit contributes to the care of the land, animal welfare, and the regeneration of Patagonia's grasslands. Our Estancia Laguna Sofia has demonstrated the results required to confirm land regeneration and has met the standards and protocols of Ecological Outcome Verification (EOV), Savory Institute 2026.

Estancia Laguna Sofia and Pingo Salvaje Turismo hold International Sustainability Certification

Difficulty	Medium – Low.
Rider's Age and Level	From 4 to 80 years old, suitable for riders of low, intermediate, and advanced levels.
Activity Duration	Approximately 3 hours, including a warm and friendly welcome, equipment setup, induction, visit to the stables, riding demonstration and instruction, as well as organization for departure and arrival.
Effective Riding Time	2:30 hours approximately.
Route	Approximately 8 kilometers with altitudes ranging from 59 to 381 meters.
Price	USD 90 per person.
Schedule	09:00 AM (in October and April at 10:00 AM) and 02:30 PM.
Specialized Staff	The activity is carried out by Patagonian baqueanos, experts in the region and horse riding. These experienced guides carry a communication radio and a first aid kit. A guide may lead up to 6 riders (1:6 ratio).
Equipment	Equestrian helmets, leather gaiters, and high-quality saddles with handmade leather saddlebags and sheepskin saddle pads are provided for the protection and safety of participants.
What to wear	It is suggested to wear a rain jacket and/or warm clothing, gloves, and closed-toe shoes with low to medium heels. The use of plastic ponchos, high-heeled footwear, shorts, selfie sticks, and drones is not recommended. Personal gloves are recommended.
Breathtaking Views	During the horseback ride, you will enjoy mountainous landscapes, ancient native forests, sighting of various bird species, including the majestic Condor, and different scenarios that will provide emotions and an unforgettable life experience. Patagonian weather is extreme and unpredictable: you may experience sun, wind, cold, rain, or snow. Activities are only cancelled in the event of heavy rain that compromises passenger safety.
